

YouTube VIDEOS

Our aim is to make available YouTube videos introducing major themes of Arabic logic that don't require much background knowledge of Arabic logic but are not readily available in the published literature.

1. Three short videos making up a lecture delivered to the Nordic Online Logic Seminar on 24 May 2021, on how the youthful Avicenna set about reworking the foundations of Aristotle's modal logic so as to defend some logical theses that he proposed in opposition to Aristotle.
